Election Tuesday Will Draw Huge Crowd To Polls

Everyone is Urged to Vote During Important Balloting

"The right to vote transcends the interests of any candidate or any cause. It is a right inherited from men who fought and died to attain it, and a right which, if endangered, almost every American would fight to preserve. The surest way for us to see that the right to vote is never endangered is to develop the right to its fullest extent through usage—by voting at every election."

With these words, Governor Earl Warren has called on his fellow Californians to turn out next Tuesday, November 4, and cast their ballots.

Center of interest is the campaign for California's 32 presidential electoral votes between the Republican candidates, Dwight D. Eisenhower and Richard Nixon, and the Democratic ticket, Adlai Stevenson and John Sparkman. Also listed on the presidential ballot will be the Independent Progressive ticket, headed by Vincent Hallinan and Charlotta Bass, and the Prohibition party candidates, Stuart Hamblen and E. A. Holtwick.

24 Propositions

Of secondary interest but at least of equal importance will be a long list of 24 initiatives, referendums and constitutional amendments upon which electors will be asked to pass a "yes or no" verdict as to whether they shall become law.

U. S. Senator William F. Knowland, who captured the Republican and Democratic nominations at the primary, faces Reuben Borough, the IPP nominee, on the ballot next Wednesday. Assemblyman Francis Lindsay, State Senator Harold Johnson and Representative Clair Engle all carry both major party nominations and have no opposition on the ballots.

In the Truckee, Tahoe and Donner areas of Placer and Nevada Counties, there will be a total of nine precincts. Truckee No. 1 will be at the elementary school, Truckee No. 2-A will be in the fire house and No. 2-B in the justice court. Nevada County residents on Donner Summit will vote in Donner Summit Lodge. Placer County electors on the Summit will vote either at Cisco Grove or Kiski Lodge.

North Tahoe Precincts

There will be two polling places in the Community Center at Tahoe City and two more at the Kings Beach school for voters in the Lake Tahoe area of Placer County.

Beside the statewide elections, there will be two county contests in both Placer and Nevada Counties.

In Nevada County's first supervisorial district, Supervisor C. J. Tobiassen is being challenged by Curtis Clark of Nevada City, former foreman of the grand jury. Supervisor Frank J. Rowe in the second district (Grass Valley) faces John Frank in the election Tuesday.

The Kings Beach and Summit area voters in Placer County will cast a possible deciding factor in the contest between Supervisor Frank Paoli of Applegate and Lynford Lardner of Colfax for the fourth district seat on the county board. In the third district, where Supervisor Wm. Haines is retiring, G. O. Griffith and Wesley Waddle both are after the single vacancy.

Record turnouts are expected in the neighboring mountain counties with Nevada County having a registration of 11,849 and Placer County 21,824.

Remember the day — Tuesday, November 4—the hours 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. YOU have a date with history!

Chamber Plans Christmas Fete For Local Area

The prizes will be in the nature of merchandise orders on any member store with a $50 first and $25 second prize in the commercial class and a $25 first and $10 second for homes.

The chamber's action was proposed to promote a 100 per cent trade-at-home Christmas and this theme will be carried out in every detail for the next two months.

TRUCKEE COURT STILL LEADS IN FINE COLLECTION

A decline of nearly $500 in the amount of fines and fees collected in the Truckee Judicial District court by Judge F. W. Wilson was seen in his report for October as compared with September, when an all-time record was established.

The total fines and fees for October was $3,250.75 compared to the $3,769.50 for the preceding month.

Of the October total, $2,417.50 was assessed against traffic law violators, $795 against fish and game law breakers, $25 for criminal violators, $5.25 for small claims court fees and $8 for civil court fees.

The county treasury will be enriched by $2,853.25 from the total while $397.50 goes to the state from the game law fines, this being half the total collected by Judge Wilson.

The California voter on November 4 will have his hands full—with a full ballot. Not only must he make the vital choices for national offices but he must pass on no less than 24 state propositions in addition to local issues in some communities. Getting sufficient information to decide intelligently on the propositions is not easy. It will require a little time and thought. But it should be done. Above all, the voter should not cast his ballot on the basis of what seems to be the popular opinion on any issue. Many impressions are gained from the advertising and publicity put out. But these need to be looked at more carefully. A catchy slogan on this or that proposition, a dire warning, a touching appeal — all may tend to move us. But let's be sure they are moving us in the right direction. Think for yourself. Millions of dollars and vital questions are tied up in the November ballot. If you cast your vote carelessly you may vote just opposite to what you would if you had checked the facts. Be sure to vote, but also be sure you know what you're voting on.

Snow Removal Program To Be Same As 1951

Additional Equipment To Be Used Only If Needed

The division of highways has no plan to supplement snow removal equipment assigned to Highways 40 and 50 last year prior to the heavy storms which closed the two transcontinental routes for nearly 30 days.

However, the division says, equipment will be moved in "if it is needed," the same as last year.

The Capitol News Service at Sacramento has learned that in District III, the equipment assigned for snow removal is as follows:

Colfax: two heavy push plows, one motor grader.

Yuba Gap: two rotary plows, three heavy push plows, one light rotary push plow and one motor grader.

Donner: three rotaries, four heavy push plows, one light rotary push plow and two motor graders.

Truckee: one rotary, three heavy push plows, one light rotary push plow and one motor grader.

At Tahoe City there is one rotary, two heavy push plows.

Echo Summit has two rotaries, three heavy push plows, one light rotary push plow and one motor grader.

The division informed the news service that this is exactly the same equipment that was located at these maintenance stations last year before the big storms.

A program has been designed for both groups with games and refreshments for all.

"From past experience, I have one request to make," Osburn said. "Instead of waiting until the day after to submit criticism, our committee will really appreciate it if those with suggestions will offer them, along with some help, before the parties begin."

TRANSPORTATION TO POLLS OFFERED BY LOCAL DRIVERS

Anyone unable to vote next Tuesday because of lack of transportation in the Truckee precincts is invited to telephone Tuckee 13 and "passage to the polls" will be arranged, according to Mrs. Laura Gaiennie, chairman of the women's division of the Eisenhower and Nixon campaign in this area.

Mrs. Gaiennie says she is arranging for several competent drivers to volunteer their services and shuttle schedules will be set up to conform to the convenience of the voters. She asks that those availing themselves of the service indicate where they want to be picked up and at approximately what time it will be convenient for them to go to their polling places.

"With the issues before us," Mrs. Gaiennie says, "those of us supporting the Eisenhower-Nixon ticket feel that our chance of victory increases proportionately as the number of voters on November 4 increase. Therefore, we are making the effort to see that every eligible voter gets to cast her or his ballot next Tuesday."

Utility District Negotiates For Sale Of Tract

Lewis Makes Deposit On Property; State Is Interested

Negotiations are underway between the Truckee Public Utility District board of directors and G. E. Lewis, Truckee contractor, for the sale to the latter of approximately 200 acres of district land in the Meadow Park area for $40,000.

In a tentative agreement, Lewis had made a deposit of $1,000 on the land which extends from Donner Park to the Tahoe-Truckee High School south of and bordering Highway 40 and extending south to the Southern Pacific's right of way.

The tentative agreement calls for the $40,000 purchase price, with a down payment of $15,000 and payments of $5,000 annually, with interest, for five years, C. Edmunds, district manager, said.

In the meantime, officials from the division of highways are interested in obtaining approximately 74 acres in the rear of the land in question for use as a gravel pit. The utility directors have declined to accept offers by the state to date and it has been indicated that, regardless of the ownership, the division will insist upon obtaining the gravel even if condemnation proceedings are required.

At Tuesday's meeting, the board members were unable to say what effect the state's insistence would have on the sale but were later advised that Lewis proposed to continue with negotiations, hoping to arrive at an agreement with the highway representatives.

No definite plan for the use of the money was forthcoming from the board, in event, the sale is completed, but it was indicated the need for improvement and repair to the water system is paramount.

A recent resolution adopted by the North Tahoe Community Club recommending the widening of the trans-Sierra Highway 40, copies of which were sent Governor Earl Warren, Representative Clair Engle and Senator Wm. Knowland has received acknowledgments. A letter received by Harry Charrison, president of the club, from the governor's secretary, M. F. Small, briefly stated the matter would be called to the attention of our governor upon his return to the state. A letter addressed to Stanley S. Norwalk, club secretary, from Engle expresses interest in the proposal and states he has been in touch with the U. S. commissioner of public roads and the department of defense to see what can be worked out along lines recommended. Engle mentions the department of defense has surveyed many roads and has expressed interest in a better highway but thus far has declined to advocate funds as a military necessity at this time. A letter to Charrison from William P. Yaeger Jr., secretary to Senator Knowland, acknowledges receipt of the copy of the resolution. Yaeger, for the club's information, attached a copy of a letter received from the state director of public works in response to an inquiry as to the position of the state with respect to the widening of this highway. Those interested in this project should make a special effort to attend the next meeting of the North Tahoe Community Club at which this correspondence will be read.

Here Are the Facts About the Increase in Placer Co. Taxes

Many of the voters in the Fourth District, Placer County, were surprised to learn a few days ago that they will be paying higher taxes this year. I am being accused of raising your taxes this year. This is not true! Last year your tax rate was $1.99. This year the Board of Supervisors reduced the county tax rate to $1.66, a cut of 33 cents. If re-elected I will work for a continued reduction in your tax rate each year.

Why is your tax bill higher this year?

It is higher because not all of the special districts within the county have been able to reduce their tax rates as requested by the Board of Supervisors. The amount of money you pay for your schools, for fire protection and for other services rendered by local districts, is determined by the governing boards of these districts who are elected by you. They set their own tax rates. YOUR SUPERVISORS HAVE NO CONTROL OVER THESE DISTRICTS. The taxes for these districts are merely added to your County tax bill.

Why are local districts being asked to reduce their tax rates?

Four years ago the County Assessor began to reappraise all of the property within Placer County. This is being done in every county in California at the insistence of the State Board of Equalization. This Board determines how much taxes public utilities such as railroads and power companies must pay in each county by determining the value of the property owned by them. The Board of Equalization, which has used a higher figure in assessing this property than has Placer County, threatened to lower its figure unless we raised the figure used to assess your property. Thousands of tax dollars would have been lost to Placer County every year if this had happened. You, the County taxpayers, would have had to make up this loss. This is why the County Assessor is increasing the value put on your homes and ranches for tax purposes.

Even when the local district tax rate remains the same or has been lowered slightly, you will still pay more tax dollars because of the increase in the assessed value of property within those districts. While maintaining the same tax rate, three school districts this year will realize increases of $60,000, $42,000 and $8,000 in their income, respectively. This is why your Board of Supervisors decided to lower the tax rate as quickly as possible. The Board has asked every school, fire, water, cemetery and public utility district in Placer County to co-operate by lowering their tax rates.

Let's look at the record! On March 3, 1952, the Board of Supervisors adopted and published a resolution in every newspaper in the County urging local districts to help hold the tax line by reducing their tax rates wherever possible. On August 6, 1952, the Board followed up this plea with a personal letter to each local district again urging them to cut their tax rates.

SOME OF THESE DISTRICTS HAVE MADE SOME REDUCTIONS, BUT MOST OF THEM HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO DO SO. THE MEN AND WOMEN WHO SERVE ON THESE BOARDS WITHOUT PAY AND DEVOTE THEIR TIME TO HELPING MAKE OUR SYSTEM OF DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT WORK, DESERVE OUR SUPPORT. I AM CERTAIN THAT WHERE CUTS IN THEIR TAX RATES HAVE NOT BEEN MADE, IT IS BECAUSE THEY MUST HAVE THE ADDITIONAL TAX MONEY TO CARRY ON THEIR WORK. HOWEVER, I DO NOT WANT TO BE BLAMED FOR AN INCREASE IN YOUR TAX BILL WHEN THE INCREASE COMES FROM DISTRICT BOARDS IN WHICH I HAVE NO VOICE.

We all know the problems our schools are having to expand to meet increased enrollment, higher costs and other problems. Every school district in the Fourth Supervisorial District, with but one exception, now has the highest tax rate allowed them by law. One district increased its tax rate this year. When some of these problems have been met, I am certain tax rates will be reduced. However, in the meantime your investment in your children's education means more tax dollars on your tax bill.

Before you vote next Tuesday consider all the facts. The next time someone tells you I have raised you taxes, show him this article. I have worked for lower taxes and for the most economical use of your tax dollars during my first term. If re-elected I will continue to work for these things. Give me your support, and your vote when you go to the polls next Tuesday.

TAHOE LAKE P. T. A. TO SPONSOR JITNEY DINNER ON 8th

TAHOE CITY— Something really novel—a Jitney Dinner—is being sponsored by the Tahoe Lake PTA members at 6:30 p.m. November 8 at the Tahoe Lake School to which the general public is cordially invited.

Mrs. Max Porter and Mrs. Ray Fellows are chairmen of the affair and have sent home announcements of the dinner this week with requests for tasty donations. The kindergarten and first grade students are asked to bring any kind of a casserole dish. The second and third grades are asked for any kind of salad and the fourth, fifth and sixth grades are requested to bring any kind of dessert.

Helping per person will cost only five cents each. This is the first time a Jitney Dinner has been attempted here and it is believed it will prove a popular idea for all.

CAPITAL CITY SKIERS OPEN SEASON AT BUSY MEETING

SACRAMENTO— With Paul Smith, president of Far West Ski Association, here to make the major talk, local skiers opened the current season last night in a meeting in the Wonder Hostess Room on Arden Way.

Frank Davison, vice president of the association, announced Otto Steiner, veteran slatrider who holds the chairmanship of the FWSA ski instructors' committee, was to be among others addressing the meeting.

The program was to include a showing of "Skiing is Fun," a film photographed by Luggi Foegger, head instructor of the Yosemite Ski School.

Since the meeting was the first staged here by FWSA, a number of key persons from the ski areas of Highway 40 will attend. Coming from Donner Ski Ranch were Edvi Aro and Jack Woodard. Sugar Bowl was to be represented by Manager Walter Haug and Katie Starratt, director of the winter sports program.

SWANEE'S

Tahoe Letter

Tahoe City, Oct. 27

Dear Tahoeites—

Lake Tahoe still basks in one of the most wonderful autumns we have ever experienced. Warm sunny days still prevail, with mornings and evenings a bit crisp.

Am happy to report that Charles and Oliver Henrikson, local sand and gravel contractors, have generously agreed to put in a road to our little rustic cemetery near the Tahoe City golf links and to gravel it. They will also bulldoze some parking areas near the cemetery so that the cars may drive directly to the spot. The newly installed picket fence, now all completed, awaits only a coat of white paint by Denis Sach, Pineland painting contractor, to finish it up. This has been one of the finest examples of civic cooperation it has been my lot to witness in many a year in this area, and as usual, the real glory goes to a few who seem to feel their obligations more than the average citizen. The town is especially grateful to Charlie Cross of the Truckee-Tahoe Lumber Co. and Al Snyder of Snyder Lumber Co. in Lake Forest for providing, free of charge, the necessary lumber, and to Bert Anderson, Pineland contractor, who took time to supervise the installation of the new fence. To all who gave of their time, we say: A most grateful and sincere thank you. I have just been told this week that, with the aid of some tiling, which the Truckee-Tahoe Lumber Company will provide, the little plot can be drained of the water which stands there in the spring, making it an ideal resting place in every respect. Maybe we can see this done too before snow flies.

Members of the Women's Club of Tahoe last week gathered clothing which was picked up Monday in town for the suffering Koreans. Phyllis Walsh of the Reno AWVS called for the clothing today. Ladies of the Women's Club will again this year bake cookies and make candy for the veterans of the Alaskan area, which will be delivered through the good offices of the AWVS.

Most of the town turned out Saturday to cheer the team of the Tahoe-Truckee High School, the Wolverines, who met the Pine Grove boys on the Tahoe City golf links Saturday afternoon. It was a beautiful day and the crowd was most enthusiastic. The local lads went down to defeat by a score of 26 to 0 but they showed promise of winning qualities. The Wolverines held them on the lines although heavily outweighed. All the touchdowns were made by end runs. Two local boys were hurt in play. Jerry Quam was "out" briefly when he was hit hard and Jay Stuart received a twisted knee which was pretty painful for a time. The Wolverines are looking forward to their next night game, to be played at Chester on Friday night. They hope to bring home winning honors from the Plumas County community.

Al Sanford of Lake Tahoe and Richard Leuschner Sr. of Merced enjoyed elk hunting in Utah last week. Leuschner killed a big elk and Sanford shot one too but the latter was unable to track it down before dark and lost out. He was consoled by killing two big mule tails in Utah the next day.

Constable Harry Johanson's white samoyede Viking is home again and alive, although on the invalid list. He still limps with his bad leg but Harry hopes that if he remains close to home and gives up his wanderlust for the time being, he will recover fully.

Henrikson Brothers of Lake Forest are laying the foundation for their new warehouse in town, next to the entrance of the Tahoe City golf course. It will be approximately 100x50 and will house their vehicles and cement. Their new office is completed and ready for occupancy.

November 4th is nearing swiftly and here's hoping there will be no slackers when it comes time to vote. No matter who your choice may be, let's lend our moral support to the grand finale. It is one of America's greatest privileges. See you at the polls. Adios and the best of good luck to all, as ever, Swanee.

SQUAW VALLEY GRANTED DELAY IN LEGAL ACTION

TAHOE CITY— Justice of the Peace C. W. Vernon of Tahoe City has allowed Squaw Valley Development Company an additional 10 days to answer the complaint of Norton Eastwood of Los Angeles who is suing the resort company for $186.75 damages allegedly done to his car by the Squaw Valley snow plow during last winter's heavy snow.

Richard Deming, Lake Forest log truck driver, was fined $25 for exceeding the legal speed limit for logging trucks. Cited by Patrolman Roy Stallard, he paid the fine on October 22.

NORTH LAKE MARINE IS MARRIED TO KEYSTONE MARINE

KINGS BEACH— A double ring ceremony, performed by Judge Laurence Layman at Reno on Saturday, October 25, united Paul S. Martin of Kings Beach and Miss Marion Reaman of Tamaqua, Pennsylvania.

The bride was given in marriage by David Hall, father of the bridegroom, as her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reaman of the eastern city, were unable to be present. She was attended by Miss Olga Laskay of Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. Martin chose a navy suit with navy and white accessories and a hat in a gold shade. She wore a talisman roses corsage to complete the ensemble. Mr. and Mrs. David Hall of Kings Beach gave a dinner for the wedding party following the rites.

Staff Sergeant Martin and his bride are stationed at the Marine Supply Depot in San Francisco and both have some time to serve with the U. S. Marine Corps.

They returned to the city where they have an apartment. Martin is well known in the lake district and the couple received felicitations before their departure.

NEVADA GETS TOUGH WITH VIOLATORS FROM OUT OF STATE

RENO— Six Modesto, California, residents, who paid fines totaling $1550 found to their sorrow that game laws and bag limits apply in Nevada as elsewhere. State Conservation Officer Ed Siri nabbed the men in Ophir Canyon, Nye County, in possession of eight deer with unpunched deer tags—and out hunting more deer when arrested. The fines were levied by Judge Walter Bowler of Tonopah.

The six Modestans are C. F. Stedman, Everett Stedman, Tom Stedman, Ernest Stedman, H. T. Stedman and Tom Luttrell.

Meanwhile, Nevada's drive to end the sale of resident licenses to unathourized persons intensified. The Nevada fish and game commission announced in Reno that they intend to strictly enforce the statute requiring six months residence in Nevada before a resident hunting or fishing license may be bought.

The game agency said that a series of investigations is now underway to find out to what extent this practice has gone and further stated that complaints will be obtained and warrants filed where facts indicate licenses were obtained without a six months residence in Nevada.

13 is UNLUCKY...

40 years ago the people of California drove the political machines and corrupt bosses from the State Capital through free and open primary elections in which cross-filing of candidates was permitted. Proposition 13 on the November 4 ballot is the opening wedge for the attempted come-back of political bossism to California politics, advocated by a handful of disappointed unsuccessful office seekers. Keep your public servants responsive to your wishes rather than subssrvient to party bosses.

Democrats and Republicans, labor, business and farmers —they all say: "No matter how deeply you differ on election day over candidates and other ballot issues—whatever you do, vote 'YES' on PROPOSITION 2!"

That's because:

PROPOSITION 2 meets fairly and squarely the school crisis brought about by the twin pressures of inflation and increased population.

PROPOSITION 2 increases the State's share of local school support, and relieves the mounting tax burden on homeowners.

PROPOSITION 2 makes sure that California's future citizens have the educational opportunity they need now!

More than 200 California organizations, local and statewide, including the following, join in urging you to vote YES on PROPOSITION 2:

SMASH BOTH McLAIN SCHEMES

George H. McLain, the perennial pension promoter who finances his operations by ruthless appeals to pensioners for a "cut" each month from their pension payments—he even asks old people to send him their gold jewelry and keepsakes —is back on the ballot this year with TWO unsavory schemes.

McLAIN's PROPOSITION NO. 10 is a blackjack scheme. It seeks to penalize all the fine civic groups and organizations that have fought his unsound schemes in the past, by denying use of public funds for Chamber of Commerce and tourist promotion activities, 4-H Club youthbuilding work, Veterans' Rehabilitation programs, Labor Day observances sponsored by labor unions, school trustee organization work, and other useful, beneficial purposes. Proposition No. 10 is vicious and senseless.

McLAIN's PROPOSITION NO. 11 is a re-hash of the old McLain Pension Scheme adopted by a narrow margin in 1948 and overwhelmingly repealed the following year, after it had sent pension administration costs soaring to fantastic heights. Once again, Proposition No. 11 would transfer the responsibility for determining pension eligibility and disbursing pension funds from local governments to one State Bureau. It is a scheme to achieve vast political power by creating a political pension dictatorship.

Russian Captive Writes About Slave Labor

(The following letter, written by a German Nun captive of the Communists in Russia, was smuggled through the Iron Curtain into the American occupied Zone of Austria. For fear of reprisal, the name of the captive cannot be given.)

Dear Parents,

AT LAST I have an opportunity to give you some sign that I am alive. It is such a long time since we were carried off to Russia. How often do I cry out: Do not forget us, pray for us, help us. We are abandoned and destitute, plunged into unspeakable misery.

It is horrible what we are enduring here, 1500 of us Sisters. We are treated as beasts, driven to work with blows. If one of us collapses, she is left by the roadside to die . A guard may beat one of us to death without a sign of emotion.

AT FIRST WE helped build a bridge over the Dnieper—heavy work for men. We were forced to pull and drag the steel girders across the wide river. Whoever collapsed got the whip. Whoever did not get up again was brutally kicked by the guard into the river. Long exhausting days of hard work and hardly more to eat than a piece of soggy bread and watered soup. Many of the Sisters died during the work here, and we envy them.

Now we are working in a mine, a long day underground in stifling air, and here many have also died. If only we had someone to give us courage, to support and help us a little. But there is no one.

We are completely lost and lonely! No Sunday, no day of rest. Nothing but the endless working day, hunger, beatings, a pitifully cold barracks, a hard cot without warmth and full of filth and vermin. We ourselves are clothed in rags. We are no longer human beings. . .

IT IS SO very hard to have no hope, to see no star. Mother, can you understand now why sometimes the question comes, "How can God permit this? Why so much suffering? How much longer?" And then a black despair grips us. It goes beyond our strength, but despite everything we put our confidence in God and trust in His Providence.

We all wear a cross on our breasts, and in the midst of our sorrow and loneliness we find our refuge in Him — Him to Whom we want so much to remain faithful unto death. But pray for us! Pray. Pray.

What we daily go through cannot be described, and yet we believe that God is permitting all this sorrow for the good of our souls. I cannot tell you everything—I dare not tell you how we women are dishonored here, shamed, trampled upon . . .

OH MOTHER, I do not wish to make your heart too heavy, and I tell you but the least of our sufferings. May God look with mercy upon us poor, crushed, tortured Sisters who, despite everything, still believe in Him, love Him, and remain alive for Him in this endless death.

Your poor child,
(NAME WITHELD).

American GI's In Foreign Lands to Get Poll Results

Who won the election?

American soldiers — whether in Alaska or Eritrea, Korea or Germany—will get a fast answer to that question this year.

From Ankara to Seoul, from Manila to Heidelburg, from Saigon to Trieste, soldier interest in the national election is at the same fever pitch as civilian interest within the United States.

"Is it Adlai or Ike?" That's the question American soldiers around the world are asking.

And they will get the answer just as fast as television viewers, radio listeners, and newspaper readers in the United States.

The Army Signal Corps' vast communications network and Troop Information and Education facilities will carry up-to-the-minute electionn news to American soldiers throughout the world beginning immediately after the polls close November 4. Not only will this network give them the answer to the number one question, but it also will tell them how the trend goes in each state, and who wins election to the Senate and House.

The three major press associations — Associated Press, United Press and International News Service—have agreed to supply the Army their election news in order to keep soldiers everywhere informed.

The New York Bureau of European "Stars and Stripes," one of the Army's two biggest newspapers, will prepare reports and transmit them to Washington. There the Army Signal Corps will relay it to major units throughout the world and from there they will be transmitted to smaller Army units everywhere.

More than 200 unit newspapers and 72 Army radio stations will work around the clock, getting the news to the soldiers. In addition, many small units without newspapers will publish mimeograph bulletins for distribution.

While the Army's communications system will be used, military messages will take priority over election news.

This represents the first time the Army has attempted such mammoth election coverage. It resulted from a telephone call by Sid Gans, New York Bureau chief of "Stars and Stripes," to the Army's Troop Information and Education Division in Washington. Gans said that while "Stars and Stripes" would go all out to get the news to soldiers, he knew many were out of reach of his paper. He asked whether TI&E could lend a hand. It could. So could the Signal Corps. As a result, soldiers everywhere will get the news while it is news.

NEVADA COUTY TO RECEIVE SHARE OF FOREST FUNDS

NEVADA CITY— Supervisor Guerdon Ellis of the Tahoe National Forest announces that the gross receipts from the sale of timber, the grazing of livestock and fees collected for land uses totaled $737,102.56 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1952. Twenty-five percent of these receipts, or $185,275.64, will be distributed shortly to Sierra, Placer, Yuba and Nevada Counties in lieu of taxes.

Nevada County's share of these receipts is figured on a basis of the National Forest acres within the county as compared to the total public land acres in the Tahoe Forest, the supervisor explained. Since Nevada County has a total of 139,940 acres in the Tahoe Forest and the total acreage of public land in the Forest is 694,503 acres, Nevada County's share of the $185,275.64 in approximately one-sixth of that amount, or exactly $37,332.41.

Supervisor Ellis points out that this is an annual return of more than 26 cents per acre for every publicly owned acre of Nevada County within the boundaries of the forest.

"When it is considered that all of the National Forest acres are wild lands, and many of these aocres produce no tangible revenues, even though the Forest lands are priceless storers of water, the per acre returns are nevertheless very substantial," added the Forest official.

LETTER to the editor

Tahoe City, Oct. 24

EDITOR, SIERRA SUN:

Last week I read your piece and this week the one by Mr. Dolley on a yes vote on Prop. No. 3 and so far nothing on a no vote, so here goes. The following has been taken from the "New Age" magazine written by Charles Albert Adams, Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of California, former member of the state board of education and founder of Public Schools Week; Henry W. Coil, attorney at law, and Alfred J. Lundberg, past president, California State Chamber of Commerce, who state there are a number of reasons why a no vote should be had:

1. It would add more millions of dollars to the already too large amount (now estimated at 765 millions) of private property exempt from taxation. If the tax base is to be changed it should be broadened and never narrowed.

2. There is no limit to the extent of this proposed exemption, as there is to the exemption granted universities and colleges.

3. If, as claimed by the proponents of the measure, the exemption should be granted because the parochial schools keep the children out of the public schools and thus lessen the cost of public education, then the property of all private schools should be exempted; and there is no reason to exempt only schools owned and operated by religious foundations or corporations, i. e., parochial schools which are a component part of the church which operates them.

4. No one will deny that a parent has a right to send his child to a private school if he so desires, even though it be one maintained primarily to indoctrinate the child with the ideology of a particular religion, but he has no right to expect a taxpayer who is not of that faith to help pay its cost.

5. The proposed measure violates the American principle of the entire separation of church and state. A tax exemption is equivalent of a subsidy. It is in principle and in effect a grant of public money in aid of a religious sect, and helps support schools controlled and operated by a church of a religious denomination.

6. If there were no other reason, the proposed measure should be defeated because the welfare constitutional amendment, now claimed to authorize this exemption, was never so intended. The people have twice before refused to exempt these schools, and when authority was given to exempt "property used for religious, hospital or charitable purposes," it was on the assurance in the voters' handbook that "schools other than colleges shall not be exempted." This assurance was recognized and confirmed, when the revenue code was amended, by an express provision that it should not be construed to exempt schools.

7. Schools, other than religious schools, can and will be taken care of but we will have to separate them from any and all religion or we will be taking this grand country of our back to the days of its very beginning, when as you know, all schools were of a religion. The free public schools were intended to educate all of the children of all of the people. If some want it different, let them pay for it. If I want a Cadillac, I can have it if I can pay for it.

Yours truly,
NATE P. SEXTON

Supervisors Fail to Act On Placer Vacancy

AUBURN— Placer County is still without a tax collector.

The supervisors Monday failed to reach an agreement on balloting on ten applications for the vacancy created by the death of George Lathrop October 3.

Supervisor Frank Paoli moved to start the balloting but his motion died for want of a second and Supervisor J. B. Paloini said he wants to study the possibility of combining the office with that of the recorder or treasurer in the interest of economy.

SUMMIT SCENE

by FRAN COUILLARD

Now that you've received your invitation to the Halloween party at Donner Summit Lodge, you'll know that the date we gave you (Friday, October 31) has been changed to Saturday, November 1. Wear anything you like and if you plan to participate in the game, jeans are suggested as your best bet!

Two parties that lie behind us are Maria Patten's and Smiley Tschopp's. Hostesses Helen McCarty, Gladys Pedley, Verna Rossi and Esther Marturano invited the mountain gals to a stork shower that was a surprise to Maria. Presents piled ceilingward took Maria a few hours to open and even with the help of Betty Horak, who folded things carefully and repackd them as the nervous honoree plucked them from their tissue, and Gladys Pedley, who wrote down the names of the many well wishers, it was still a long time before the delightful luncheon and stork games were indulged in. Waxed bassinets, delectable cake cut in bassinet shape, home made nut breads by Helen McCarty, an eye appealing and taste tempting salad — all these and more were enjoyed by the large crowd of mountain folk that attended. Lola Schull, Goldie Rowton, Lena Frederick and yours truly walked off with the prizes for the "stork" games.

Smiley (Madylon Tschopp) celebrated her nearing-Halloween birthdate last Monday with a costume party, something always dear to a kid's heart. Ice cream and Mama Day's own delectable home made cakes topped off the mountain youngsters' dress up day with a bang.

Among parties we look forward to too is the big doings November 15 at Beacon Hill Lodge when the Donner U.S. 40 Chamber goes into an elaborate festival called the Donner Party. Object—to raise money for the chamber coffers.

Another we look foward to will be passed by the time this Summit Scene goes to press. With the exodus of long time residents, the Cramptons, the community felt it couldn't let them go without an expression of the regret we feel at their leaving and as a token of appreciation for fine, loyal, active citizens. So the community club got on the ball to call a special meeting at the Donner Trail School in honor of the Cramptons. A call for a pot luck dinner brought such tempting offerings as Maud Howard's baked beans, Eula Sherritt's chili, meat loaves, salads, cakes and the works—and all within a few hours after the decision to fete the Cramptons was made.

Another exodus takes the Nordstrom family from the mountain. We will truly miss Chatterbox (Ingrid), shy Karin and grinning Carl, who've been nice next door neighbors to us. We shall also miss Mangot and Ernie Nordstrom's helping hands when we needed them. The reticent Nordstroms did not disclose their going away plans until a few days before their moving. However, a few of us managed to sit on the the few packed boxes left in the middle of their vacant dwelling and salute them with a goodbye toast.

Barely was the key turned in the front door until we had acquired a new neighbor. Charlie Kemp didn't wait for the ashes to cool in the fireplace before he had his furniture moved in. Mrs. Kemp, you will remember, was Pat Bowen, first teacher to instruct in the new Donner Trail School. Pat and baby haven't arrived as yet but Charlie greeted us with a "Hi! Neighbor!" the day after we missed the Nordstroms.

Wanda and Ricky Misener, looking chirp and chipper after a long summer of hard work in their building program, return to papa Virgil Misener after a sojourn in Utah where Mama visited her mama and Ricky visited grandma.

Helen and Milt (Uncle Knuckle) Hogle plan on making their seasonal move from Rainbow to Soda Springs shortly and then spending a little time in San Francisco.

Elmo and Jean Moriano return from opening day duck shooting around the Biggs country.

We saw charming Bertha Benham at Donner Summit Lodge. You'll remember Bertha reigned for years at the desk at Soda Springs Hotel. She's been a long time friend of the new owner, Johnnie Houtman, and dropped in to congratulate him on his acquisition.

'Whistlin' Don' Porter, formerly with Donner Summit Lodge, changes his address to Rainbow Tavern, where he'll whistle behind the plank.

As the Cramptons packed their belongings, they came across the usual accummulation of years in one place, so what was saleable went on the block. We've mentioned the ever young Bueks from time to time and some of their foibles and fancies. They are a constant source of amazement to their neighbors as they travel merrily along life's way—but the tip-top of everything has come, we think. For mama Buek, attending the Cramptons' sale, purchased a 15 year old motorcycle and is about to mount the saddle. Well, Mrs. Buek, deep sea fisherwoman, ardent outdoor sportswoman, downhill ski racer, mother of two grown children, we'll sit on our porch and knit as you go putting up and down Highway 40 on your new purchase!

That's all, folks.

ARMY MAILMEN BUSY

Approximately 44,850 tons of mail were transported by land, sea and air from the United States to Army and Air Force post offices in other parts of the world during the past year, bringing an estimated 31,975 tons back to the U.S. from these far-flung outposts.

DONNER TRAIL SCHOOL NEWS

The two groups at the Donner Trail Elementary School are now working on "Community Helpers" and "California" as their units for this time of the year. Group I (grades 1, 2 and 3) have built a little village community on their work table and are completing work on the utility section. Group II (grades 4, 5 and 6) have begun work on a large table display of an early California scene. They are currently making cement tests for the right mixture in making bricks for their mission.

Two of our students, Carl and Karin Nordstrom, left the school for San Francisco and Friday we had a combined going away party and Halloween get-together.

TAHOE LAKE SCHOOL NEWS

Kindergarten and first grade: First grade pupils are reading in their pre-primers now. Kindergarteners are enjoying their playhouse and store. Everyone is planning a costume for the school Halloween party.

Second and third grades: Our social studies unit this year is "The Ranch." This week we are learning about the work that cowboys do on a ranch. "Fall is here" is our science theme. We like to bring pretty leaves and different kinds of seeds to school.

Fourth, fifth and sixth grades: We are currently very busy making preparations for the school Halloween party Halloween night between 7 and 9 o'clock at Tahoe Lake School, sponsored by the PTA. We have also been busy studying about Canada as well as all our basic subjects.

The entire school enjoyed seeing a movie "How to Catch a Cold," shown Friday by Mrs. Briggs. This color movie was done in cartoon style. It was amusing and informative, Room discussions about colds followed the showing.

Donner Party History Is Program Topic

A program on the Donner Party was presented before the Golden Autumn Club this week in Sacramento. Mrs. Edna R. Lindsay was chairman. Cliff M. Bissbee, associate curator at Sutter's Fort, spoke on the Donner Party exhibits at the capital city museum and Mrs. Anna Rank reviewed McGlashan's History of the Donner Party.

The club is sponsored by the Sacramento City Library for older people.

ACQUITTED BY JURY, TRUCKEE MAN IS REARRESTED FOR L.A.

Only a few short hours after a jury in the Nevada County superior court found Alvin Anderson, 40, and Earl Able, 36, not guilty of burglarizing the Standard Oil Company station here last August 24, the former was rearrested by Constable N. F. Dolley and held for Los Angeles authorities on suspicion of grand theft.

Following their release, Anderson and Able returned to Truckee. The following day, Dolley received a communication from Sheriff Wayne Brown advising him to apprehend Anderson for Los Angeles.

It took the jury of 11 women and one man, including Mrs. Julia Ciardella of Truckee, just 15 minutes to reach a verdict.

The defense insisted the two men were only looking around the station in hopes of finding an attendant at the early morning hour when they were set upon by Laverne Hocker, who held them until Deputy Sheriff Roy Waters arrived. They were living, Anderson told the court, in Southern Pacific cars near the station and were en route to town for a "cup of coffee" when they noted lights on in the station. They desired to make a purchase, they said, and so went in to seek the attendant.

The prosecution had held that the two broke the locks on the station and were surprised by Hocker, who had been summoned by a nearby motorist after the latter heard a noise as if someone was breaking into the lubrication room. Hocker engaged the two in a fight until the arrival of Waters.

Mrs. Ruth Campbell was among the witnesses. She said she saw the men in the lub room and witnessed the arrival of Hocker.

Hocker testified that someone drove up to the Shell station where he was working and told him the Standard station was being robbed. He added he engaged the pair until Waters arrived. State Patrolman Carroll Maynard said he talked to the men only after they arrived at the Truckee jail.

Oliver N. Robinson, an attendant at the station, testified he locked the place up at 11 or 11:30 the night before. Arthur Lawson, the station manager, said he arrived 15 minutes after the men had left for jail and found the hasps for the doors of the lub room had been broken. Later he found the padlocks on the railroad right of way near the station. They apparently had been broken with a hammer which was found on the ground nearby.

Leo Todd, attorney for the pair, advanced the theory that his clients were the victims of circumstances, holding that the station may have been broken into prior to their visit and they were innocent.

District Attorney Vernon Stoll charged that since nothing was missing, a prior burglary seemed unlikely.

Judge James Snell presided over the trial.

STATE IS LOSING MANY MILLIONS FROM TIDELANDS

SARCAMENTO —(C. N. S.)— Federal seizure of California tidelands yesterday resulted in transfer of $2,323,813 to the United States treasury, a sum that represents income from oil production for July, August and September.

Thomas H. Kuchel, state controller, made this announcement, stating that the transfer of funds will bring to about $47 million the revenues impounded under the federal seizure, of which about $27 million is impounded in the state treasury and $17,500,000 is being held by the federal government.

Federal take-over, Kuchel said, affects all revenue received by the state from its tidelands since June 23, when the U. S. supreme court announced its decision to uphold the claim of the federal government to California's property. Current revenues run from $789,000 to $862,000 per month and before being impounded, a good part of the revenue was invested in a state park and beach acquistion program.

"These monies," Kuchel said, "and the tidelands which produced them, ought to belong to California. Indeed, they did belong to us for nearly a century, until in 1947, the supreme court reversed itself. And twice, a presidential veto has over-ruled congress' desire to return them to us.

"Thus, what was California's for almost a century is now taken from us. Our sense of justice is offended, American history is over-ruled and the people of the state lose what they believed to be their own property. The situation will remain so or worsen, until the people themselves determine to make a change."

TREE THIEVES TO BE OBJECTS OF CONCERTED DRIVE

NEVADA CITY— A concerted drive against Christmas tree thieves in the forests of Placer and Nevada Counties has been outlined by Leon Sanford, district ranger for the Southern Pacific Company.

Sanford said he hopes to organize landowners, forestry officials and all possible agencies in a drive to rid the area of the bootleg tree cutters who annually take thousands of trees from the forests of the Sierra Nevada.

The railroad official said Christmas tree pirates recently have used a new method in their operations. He said some of them move into a forest area late at night after the landowner has ceased to watch his properties and harvest scores of choice trees.

He said in many cases the technique of the tree thieves is to offer a large price to a landowner. The trees purchased, however, are only incidental to getting into the tree area. The thieves not only take the purchased trees but also many others on adjoining properties.

Sanford believes the arrest of a few of the major tree thieves might correct the situation in part if the illegal harvesters were forced to pay triple admages and give up the stolen trees.

Sanford said he had definite knowledge of some Christmas tree cutters who steal more trees than they buy.
